

Mercedes-Benz Museum

Guided tours for groups

Guided tours for groups are organized by appointment (approx. 75 minutes).
Cost for groups of up to 20 people: Euro 60.-

To ensure that your guided tour can be staged at the time you prefer, you should make an appointment for your group some three to four weeks in advance.

In addition, electronic audio-guides with a wide choice of languages are available free of charge for groups wishing to explore the museum without a personal guide.

At Level 0, the "Fascination of Technology" sector presents selected up-to-date topics from Mercedes-Benz Research, Design, Development and Production in a laboratory setting.

For groups of up to 20 people, special guided tours at no extra cost can be arranged on request.

Entry tickets for groups

On the day of your visit, you receive your entry tickets against payment at the information counter. Please contact the staff at the information counter for any additional information you may require.
